Re: FOIA Request – Studies in Intelligence articles

Dear Mr. Koch:

This is a request on behalf of the James Madison Project under the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552, et seq., for copies of the following articles published in the Central Intelligence Agency (“CIA”) in-house journal Studies in Intelligence:

- 1) Copeland, Miles. “The Game of Nations: The Amoral of Power Politics,” Studies in Intelligence 14/1 (Spring 1970): 107-112;
- 2) Montague, Ludwell Lee. “The Psychological Strategy Board,” Studies in Intelligence 17/2 (Summer 1973);
- 3) “An Article on the Art of Intelligence Analysis,” Studies in Intelligence 30/3 (Fall 1986);
- 4) “Bestiary of Intelligence Writing,” Studies in Intelligence 26/3 (Fall 1982);
- 5) “CIA and Academe,” Studies in Intelligence 27/4 (Winter 1983);
- 6) “Intelligence and Policy: The On-Going Debate,” Studies in Intelligence 24/4 (Winter 1980): 9-15;
- 7) “The International Arena in the Year 2000,” Studies in Intelligence 29/3 (Fall 1985);
- 8) “Interrogation of an Alleged CIA Agent,” Studies in Intelligence 23/1 (Spring 1983);

“Knowledge will forever govern ignorance, and a people who mean to be their own Governors, must arm themselves with the power knowledge gives.”

James Madison, 1822

- 9) “The Shah’s Illness and the Fall of Iran,” Studies in Intelligence 24/2 (Summer 1980): 61-63;
- 10) “Strategic Warning and Deception,” Studies in Intelligence 17/1 (Spring 1973); and
- 11) “Teaching Intelligence,” Studies in Intelligence 26/4 (Winter 1982);

If you deny all or part of this request, please cite the specific exemptions you believe justify your refusal to release the information or permit the review and notify us of your appeal procedures available under the law. In excising material, please “black out” rather than “white out” or “cut out.”

We are hereby requesting a waiver of all fees. The James Madison Project is a non-profit organization under the laws of the District of Columbia and has the ability to disseminate information on a wide scale. Stories concerning our activities have received prominent mention in many publications including, but not limited to, Washington Post, Washington Times, St. Petersburg Tribune, San Diego Union Tribune, European Stars & Stripes, Christian Science Monitor, U.S. News and World Report, Mother Jones and Salon Magazine. Our website, where much of the information received through our FOIA requests is or will be posted for all to review, can be accessed at <http://www.jamesmadisonproject.org>. Prior requests submitted by our organization have all received fee waivers.

Furthermore, there can be no question that the information sought would contribute to the public’s understanding of government operations or activities and is in the public interest. Studies in Intelligence provides insight into the analytical methods of CIA experts by illustrating on what information they focus, how they analyze the information so selected, and how their conclusions measure up to subsequent historical evidence. Similarly, many articles published in Studies in Intelligence possess great historical value, a value recognized by the ongoing CIA declassification efforts currently underway. However, for one reason or another, articles occasionally slip through the cracks of the declassification efforts or are determined to be not ripe for declassification at that particular time, and it is these articles that we seek to have released pursuant to FOIA, recognizing that the rationale for withholding an article several years ago may not be applicable any longer, and that release of these articles now will clearly contribute to the public’s understanding of past, present, and future government operations or activities.

Please respond to this request within 20 working days as provided for by law. Failure to timely comply may result in the filing of a civil action against your agency in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia. Your cooperation in this matter would be appreciated. If you wish to discuss this request, please do not hesitate to contact me by e-mail at
